Frontline Oncology Launches The Gastric Cancer Journal™ and The Sarcoma Journal™ ~ Premier issues, June 2017 ~

Parsippany – March 7, 2017 – Frontline Oncology, a division of Frontline Medical Communications (FMC), is pleased to announce the launch of two specialty journals. These essential resources are being developed in collaboration with leading patient advocacy groups No Stomach For Cancer (NSFC) and the Sarcoma Foundation of America (SFA).

Frank Iorio, Managing Director at Frontline Oncology, announced the launch and said, “We look forward to expanding our communication programs to engage all stakeholders involved in the screening, early detection, and care of patients with gastric and soft-tissue cancers and to supporting the missions of the SFA and NSFC advocacy groups.”

As a leader in medical publishing, FMC offers extensive marketing options designed to meet our clients’ specific goals and objectives. For opportunities, contact Frank Iorio at fiorio@frontlinemedcom.com or 973.206.8990.

About *The Gastric Cancer Journal™

The Gastric Cancer Journal™, official publication of No Stomach for Cancer (NSFC), www.nostomachforcancer.org, a leading gastric cancer patient advocacy organization, is a conduit to inform and educate physicians and allied healthcare professionals (HCPs) on the latest research, prevention, diagnosis and treatments for gastric cancer and hereditary forms of gastric cancer. Published quarterly by Frontline Oncology, The Gastric Cancer Journal™, (www.gastriccancerjournal.org) addresses the needs of clinical oncologists and other HCPs involved in gastric cancers by providing professional resources covering the most current medical news and educational content on these cancer types. The journal supports NSFC’s activities focused on awareness, education, clinical trials, throughout the U.S. and abroad, bringing together members of the medical and scientific community and genetic counselors, to support screening and early detection, as part of the continuum of care.

About *The Sarcoma Journal™

The Sarcoma Journal™, official publication of the Sarcoma Foundation of America (SFA), www.curesarcoma.org, a leading sarcoma patient advocacy organization, is a conduit to inform and educate physicians and allied healthcare professionals (HCPs) on the latest research and leading treatments for soft/connective-tissue tumors.
Published quarterly by Frontline Oncology, The Sarcoma Journal™ (www.sarcomajournal.org) addresses the needs of oncologists, pediatric oncologists and other HCPs treating sarcomas by providing professional resources covering the most current medical news, diagnosis and treatment information on these cancer types. The journal supports SFA’s activities focused on funding research, increasing awareness, and providing information on clinical trials throughout the U.S. By facilitating communication among the medical and scientific community, The Sarcoma Journal™ seeks to support early detection, patient education, and more rapid developments of new and better sarcoma treatments, as part of the continuum of care.
